VERSALIFT UNITED KINGDOM LIMITED ANNOUNCES THE DEPARTURE OF MANAGING DIRECTOR, ANDY BRAY

Versalift United Kingdom Limited announces the departure of Managing Director, Andy Bray. After nearly a decade of dedicated service, Andy has left Versalift United Kingdom Limited (Time Manufacturing Company) to pursue new opportunities.

Andy joined Versalift United Kingdom Limited in 2015 and has served as the Managing Director since 2017. During his tenure, he was instrumental in building and expanding Versalift United Kingdom Limited and, most recently, Versalift Ireland Limited. His leadership and vision have significantly contributed to the growth and success of both companies.

Andy played a key role in successfully embedding renowned brands such as RUTHMANN, France Elévateur, and MOVEX into Versalift UK and Ireland, further solidifying their market position and enhancing the product portfolio.

Staff at Versalift extend their heartfelt thanks to Andy for his invaluable contributions over the years. His commitment, hard work, and dedication have earned him the respect and admiration of his colleagues and industry professionals. Over the next few weeks, Andy will work with the Versalift UK leadership team to ensure a seamless transition.
